

Finance Functions Outsourcing

Key benefits of outsourcing:

Cost advantage

Outsourcing to Waystone lowers costs by reducing the expenses associated with hiring new employees

Increased efficiency

Waystone has a wealth of experience in business practices and a unique expertise in delivering complex solutions

Focus on core areas

Outsourcing to Waystone leaves clients free to focus on building on providing higher value-added services

Save on infrastructure and technology

Waystone's services eliminate the need for investment in infrastructure by assuming responsibility of the business processes and by developing a sound infrastructure.

Access to skilled resources

The Waystone team is experienced in the respective business areas of companies that wish to outsource

Time zone advantage

Waystone offers a 24-hour service, giving clients the comfort and benefit of a round-the-clock business operation

Provide continuity and risk management

Waystone provides a level of continuity to clients across their business operations

Waystone provides investment governance and bespoke solutions to a wide variety of SPVs across all asset classes.

Waystone's services include the following:

Accounting

- maintenance of books and records
- bookkeeping management accounts
- preparation of statutory financial statements
- consolidated financial statements for Group reporting
- Central Bank reporting

Tax compliance

- engaging with external auditors and tax advisors
- PAYE compliance
- VAT compliance
- DWT compliance
- FATCA and CRS compliance

Registrations

- LEI/GIIN registrations

Aviation services

- asset management software solution - Leasepoint

Other roles

- note trustee
- paying agent

Waystone's unique and trusted services are operated using a relationship manager model and are supported by an expert servicing team. Waystone offers a diverse range of experienced directors and support staff, who are assigned to a client when the asset class fits with their relevant experience.

To find out more please contact your usual Waystone representative or contact us below