The terms of any offer to subscribe in the Fund is on the basis of the Fund’s Prospectus, Supplement and Subscription Agreement only (as may be amended, supplemented or restated from time to time) (the “Fund documents”). Investors must rely solely on the information in the Fund documents in deciding whether to invest in the Fund.

Key risk factors: Investment in India are subject to a number of risks including, but not limited to, risk of losing some or all of the capital invested, high market volatility, variable market liquidity, geopolitical risks (including political instability), exchange rate fluctuations (between the currency of the fund’s share class and the Indian Rupees), changes in tax regime and restrictions on investment activities of foreign investors. Past performance is not a guide to or indicative of future results and the value of investments and the income derived from them can go down as well as up. The future performance is subject to taxation which depends on the personal situation of each investor and which may change in the future. The value of investment in the Fund may be affected by the following risks:

- Market Risk: The Fund can invest in equities which may be affected by market risk (the risk of an investment losing its value due to changes in economic conditions).
- Investment in India: The Fund will invest primarily in India. India is an emerging economy and investment carries with it often substantial risks.
- Liquidity Risk: The Fund can be invested in financial instruments that may have low levels of liquidity.

Signatory of:

- Currency Risk: Changes in the exchange rate between the base currency of the Fund and the designated currency of unhedged share classes of the Fund expressed in a currency other than the base currency of the Fund may lead to depreciation in the value of the shares of that share class.
- For a complete overview of all risks attached to this Fund, refer to the section entitled “Risk Factors” in the Supplement and the ICAV’s prospectus (the “Prospectus”)

Please exercise due care and caution and if necessary, obtain the advice of other professionals prior to taking any decision on the basis of this information. The investment manager does not provide legal, tax or accounting advice to its clients and nothing contained in this document is to be construed as accounting, financial, legal, tax, investment or other advice. Accordingly, investors should read the Fund documents and seek their own professional advice before making any investment decision.

Country Specific Disclaimers: It is the responsibility of any person/s in possession of this document to inform themselves of, and to observe, all applicable laws and regulations of any relevant jurisdiction. Neither EAMC ICAV shall be liable for nor accept any liability for, the use or misuse of this document. If such a person considers an investment in Shares of the Fund, they should ensure that they have been properly advised about the suitability of an investment. This document should not be relied on by persons who are not qualified to receive such information in their respective jurisdiction.

Past performance is not a guide to future performance and investment markets and conditions can change rapidly. Emerging market equities can be more volatile than those of developed markets and equities in general are more volatile than bonds and cash. The value of your investment may go down as well as up and there is no guarantee that you will get back the amount that you invested. Currency movements may also have an adverse effect on the capital value of your investment. Investing in a country specific fund may be less liquid and more volatile than investing in a diversified fund in the developed markets. This Fund should be seen as a long-term investment, and you should read the Prospectus whilst paying particular attention to the risk factors section before making an investment. Please refer to the Prospectus for specific risk factors.
