

Waystone Strengthens APAC Team With New Country Head for Singapore

February 26, 2025

Waystone, a leading provider of specialist services to the global asset management industry, today announces the appointment of Nithi Genesan as its new Country Head for Singapore.

Nithi joined Waystone through the acquisition of Argus Global and has served as Director of Compliance for Waystone Compliance Solutions' Singapore operations since 2022. During this time, she has played a pivotal role in driving significant growth in APAC.

In her new role, Nithi will focus on strengthening Waystone's position in the Singapore market, while expanding its compliance services into Hong Kong, reinforcing the firm's commitment to the APAC market.

A seasoned regulatory advisory professional, Nithi is also actively involved in key industry organisations including Alternative Investment Management Association (AIMA) and the Association of Independent Wealth Managers (AIWM).

Commenting on her appointment, Nithi Genesan, Country Head for Singapore, said: "For me, growth comes from continuous learning, tackling complex challenges, and making a meaningful impact within the team. I am excited to collaborate even more closely with our clients and industry partners to stay ahead of regulatory developments. With such an incredible team around me, I am confident we will unlock new opportunities and drive even greater success in the region."

Pervaiz Panjwani, Chief Product Officer at Waystone commented: "We are at an exciting stage in our APAC journey, and Nithi's proven track record, strategic vision and deep expertise in regulatory compliance makes her the ideal person to lead our Singapore operations. Her leadership will ensure that we continue to anticipate and address our clients' evolving needs while driving Waystone's expansion in the region."
